At minimum, a music fee of $300 is charged to cover the cost of an organist and cantor at weddings. Only the Church organist is permitted to play the Church organ in St Thomas of Canterbury. Additional musicians including soloists and the church choir* can be arranged for you in consultation with our Music Director and will be at your expense. The music fee ($300) is payable at the time of booking the church.

Please note that the choir is only available to sing at one wedding on any day. Please contact the Music ) to seek their availability. The cost of the booking the choir is dependent on the number of singers available on the day and will be agreed on an individual wedding basis. The Choir is only booked and confirmed upon payment of the issued invoice.

MUSIC RECOMMENDATIONS

Organ music is a central part of the liturgy in St Thomas of Canterbury.

Unfortunately pre-recorded music and popular music such as movie theme songs, opera music and secular music cannot be performed in St Thomas of Canterbury. Only Sacred Music is acceptable within the Church, and the music recommendations below will give you a guide to what is considered Sacred Music. You are welcome to offer suggestions on music other than those hymns listed below, and to discuss your preferences with our Music Director.
